A director of the Missouri Pacific said yesterday that he expects that whatever reorganization takes place will be along the lines advocated by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. to the directors on May 11. In this letter the bankers advised a scaling down of the fixed charges of the road, together with the raising of $35,000,000 for the immediate use of the property within the next few years, without increasing the fixed charges. In addition Kuhn, Loeb & Co. placed the needs of the company at Co. placed the needs of the company at $85,000,000 within the next seven years. With such funds supplied, fixed charges

Popham of the Union Trust Company will act as secretary.

It is understood that George J. Gould and the Gould estate now hold between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000 of these Mis-souri Pacific 6 per cent, notes, which fall due on June 1, 1915. Previous to the extension of the notes the Goulds were be-lieved to hold about $2,000,000 of them. Holders of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,-000 refused to agree to the extension and Gould bought up a large amount of the notes of the non-assenting holders. thus increasing his holdings in that se-

Plections Superintendent Gave No Aid in Fraud Inquiry, He Says.

The charges of wilful neglect and gross inefficiency made against John R. Voorhis, State Superintendent of Elections, by the Honest Ballot Association were supported yesterday in the hearing before the Bar Association by Robert Rubin. Second Deputy Police Commissioner, and five other witnesses. Mr. Rubin said that no information had been furnished by the Grand Jury last year in connection with the general election.

Mr. Rubin said that as Assistant District Attorney he had had 133 warrants swon out in connection with alleged ballot frauds hast November, the evidence for fifty of which he himself had obtained.

Arthur L.
